

Dr. Attila Grandpierre, Ph. D.

Curriculum Vitae

I am a recently retired senior research fellow of Konkoly Observatory. My discoveries on the dynamics of the solar core predicting the presence of heat waves was confirmed by Prof. Robert Ehrlich's work, reported in New Scientist in the January 25, 2007 issue as being related to the origin of Ice Ages. In 2009, I organized the "Astronomy and Civilization" international conference, co-chaired with Paul Davies. In 2011, I was invited to work as a visiting professor at the Chapman University, Orange, CA by Prof. Menas Kafatos for half a year. In 2013, one of the most popular international magazines wrote: "Hungarian polymath Attila Grandpierre is a freethinking genius in an increasingly conformist world". I had a one-page interview, among others, in the New York Times and the NRC Handelblad (Netherlands).
